One of Canada's most prominent virtuoso violinists, Angèle Dubeau has performed on the world's greatest stages in a spectacular career that has spanned over 30 years. In 1997, she founded La Pietà, an all-female string ensemble. Since then, the verdict about Angèle Dubeau and la Pietà has been unanimous: their dazzling virtuosity, impeccable precision, energy, and style are equated only by the obvious pleasure they take and communicate when playing. In A Time For Us you will hear special moments of music from great composers like George Gershwin, John Williams, and Leonard Bernstein, with some of the best scores from 20th century cinema including Schindler's List, Far & Away, Beauty and the Beast, An American in Paris, The Adventures of Robin Hood and Cinema Paradiso.

"Dubeau and co. play with elegance and style…"
