Over 20 years have passed since Canada's Cowboy Junkies first saddled up with the legendary release of The Trinity Session (1998), featuring their famously ethereal cover of Lou Reed's "Sweet Jane". Blues, country and folk influences have been folded into the languorous, smoky melodies, trademark musicianship and unmistakably haunting voice of Margo Timmins. Though they've evolved from the underground breakthrough group of the '80s into the cult outfit of today, the Cowboy Junkies have never lost their place in the hearts of their fans.
