Tao is a company of martial arts drummers trained in traditional Japanese percussion who use their entire body to express the music they create. The drumming ensemble, made up of 13 men and women, work, train and live together – a cross between the ancient monks and an elite army boot camp. Created by a former punk drummer who was inspired by Cirque du Soleil's integration of Japanese taiko drumming into circus arts, Tao also draws on other sources such as Korean dancing and drumming, Indonesian bamboo marimba, and New Zealand's Maori people to create a raucous contemporary, combative concert.

Discounted Prices $255.00, $131.37, $107.57, $88.87, $71.00

The Bolshoi Ballet returns to Toronto with the most revered of classical ballets, Swan Lake, a perennial dance favourite about sorcery and royalty. Based on Russian folk tales, Swan Lake, which the Bolshoi premiered in 1877, is the haunting story of Odette, a beautiful maiden turned swan by an evil sorcerer. A tragic love story, Odette's romance with Prince Siegfried is doomed by a curse which leaves him to wander endlessly on the empty banks of the lake of his dreams. Today, the Bolshoi Ballet remains one of the world's most famous ballet companies, even Lady Gaga is a fan, and has performed with them!
